Subject: RE: Westlake/Bridgeton Landfill stories

Ok, thanks. I'm going to stand down on interview for this week. I would like OPA to explore use of skype in interviews with radio: I thought that was very creative, and wonder how many R7 radio stations would appreciate having video feed of interviews.

And I would appreciate Dan/CT/Jeff F today roughing out a talker for an interview designed to supply correctives and contexts to Ferdman's claims (and interviewer's embellishments) of last week.

Found one news story from Friday through this morning. Story focused on St. Charles tabling a resolution asking for the Army Corps of Engineers to take over the site.

Specifically checked KTRS, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, KMOX for any further coverage of the KTRS story and was unable to find anything on the web.

McGraw Milhaven is on holiday vacation this week. Unless a person is specifically looking for the KTRS audio about Westlake Landfill, you do not find it with a Google search. The KTRS website does not have a search utility.
